

FCI JUDGE ATTILA CZEGLEDI, HUNGARY

He is a well-known person both in Hungarian and in international cynology circles, a much employed All-rounder judge, Gundog specialist.

His judging career began 25 years ago – during this period he has judged in as many as 35 countries, on 5 continents, including also European Section Shows and World Dog Shows.

He was honored many times to award the Best In Show titles in several countries all over Europe, in the United States, Australia and Asia.

He was breeding English Cocker Spaniels for many years, and he has been a selfless supporter of the Spaniel breeding in Hungary. He is currently the President of the Hungarian Spaniel Breeders Association. 18 famous European and World Champion English cocker spaniels can be linked to his name: be it as a breeder, groomer or handler. He has already held Spaniel Grooming Workshops in five countries.

In his home country, he has been organizing his 60-hour, complex cynological course every year for 20 years now, with the aim of raising the quality of Hungarian cynology. He is involved in judges' training and examinations by the Kennel Club, and he is the mentor of many young judges.

He lives in the heart of the city of Budapest, and he currently owns a Short-haired Miniature Dachshund and a Whippet.

He works mainly as a speech therapist / logopedist, and as a part time job, he teaches Psychology at the University.