

Boris Chapiro (FR)

Boris has been involved in the world of dogs since the mid 70's. The first breeds he became involved with were Dobermans and Rottweilers, before truly establishing himself within the American Staffordshire Terriers fraternity under the kennel name "Nevsky Perspective". He successfully bred and exhibited them for 20 years, with a large number of dogs bred by him gaining many Champion titles across the European territories as well as gaining International Champion status. For the past five years, Boris, in partnership with his wife, has been breeding Standard Apricot Poodles under the "Iz Volzhskoy Serenady" kennel name, once again gaining tremendous success making up multiple Champions, World and European Winners throughout many European Countries. Boris' is a well recognised FCI judge with many high profile judging assignments already completed in countries across Europe including France, Russia, Finland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Ireland, Italy, Slovakia, Czech Republic, Portugal, Spain, Slovenia, Latvia, Lithuania, Gibraltar, Germany, Serbia, Belorussia and overseas assignments include Canada. By the beginning of 2012 he will have gained his FCI All Breeds status.
