

Špoljarić Boris

Boris Špoljarić is graduate engineer of construction by profession. He was born in Rijeka (Croatia) on December 20th, 1960. He's engaged with cinology from April 1974., when he got his first dog, a Šarplaninac. He became a judge 1979., and an all-round judge on the 2003. He judged in most European countries, as well as in Asian, North and South America and Africa.

With a colleague Dr. Milivoje Urošević, he owns a kennel "Taurunum FCI 1713", in which during the past 25 years they bred several races, such as German Shorthaired Pointers, German Wirehaired Pointers, Pointers, Poodles, English Cocker Spaniels, Magyar Shorthaired Vizslas, Šarplaninac, and Mid-Asian shepherd dogs.

He has written three books on dogs: "Croatian dog breeds" (1993), "Jazavičar (Dachshund)" (1993), "Hrvatska kinološka baština (Croatian cinological heritage)" (2008)
