Cynological CV Orit Nevo

My name is Orit Nevo, I live in Israel and I'm a Ridgeback fan.

In 1985 I graduated the IKC (Israeli Kennel Club) Cynological Academy and became the Israeli breeding co-ordinator for the Rhodesian Ridgeback as well as for English Mastiff, Bullmastiff, Fila Brasileiro, Bouvier de Flanders and Tibetan Mastiff. Since then I'm the breeding coordinator for Ridgebacks in Israel. I was among the founding members of the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of Israel (RRCI) in 1994 and been the Club's President since then.

Between 1992-1995, I was the editor of the Israeli Kennel Club Magazine ("Dogs' World").

Between 1999 – 2002, I was a member of the Israeli Kennel Club Scientific Breeding Committee.

In 2010, I was appointed as a member of the Israeli Kennel Club Educational Committee. I have led many seminars and lectures on a variety of topics, including "how to read a pedigree", "understanding breed standards", and various other topics relating to breeding and showing.

I have been breeding Ridgebacks under the kennel name "Rich-Rach" since 1997. I breed very selectively and only seldom. Among my dogs are Israeli Champions & International Champions, European Winner 2010, Slovenian ch., Croatian Ch. , AKC (United States) Ch., 2 Group winners at the Tel-Aviv International show and 2 Club Champions (4 years in a row).

I am a FCI International judge (qualifying to award CAC & CACIB) for several breeds: Rhodesian Ridgeback (since 1994), Bullmastiff, Dogue De Bordeaux, Mastino Napolitano, Pyrenean Mountain Dog, Bernese Mountain Dog, Newfoundland, Dalmatian, German Shorthaired Pointer, Hungarian Vizsla, and Canaan Dog.

On a personal level, I am active in different organizations dedicated to animal welfare and environment protection. In my professional life, I graduated Master's Degree (MBA) in Political Philosophy and I'm working as a PR and Environment consultant.
